Ted Cruz, finally Confirmed Zodiac Killer	Little Red Riding Hood gets a reboot	New species of moss found	We finally do something About gun control	Animal speaks Human language

This is just a fun little game you can use to keep yourself slightly entertained during the year 2018. These are in no way, wishing any ill intent on anyone and was made all in good fun. These are just a few predictions on how I personally feel 2018 is going to be like.

Rules:

This game of bingo lasts yearlong.

If one of the things on the bingo card happens than mark it so you can save your spot.

Of course the point of the game is to get five in a row, but just seeing how much of this stuff actually happens is fun in itself.
